

1. Employee Growth

The Company plans to increase its workforce by 25% over the next 3 years, focusing mainly on hiring in engineering, AI, and data science roles.

2. Salary Strategy

To remain competitive, the Company will raise average employee salaries by 12% annually, with additional bonuses tied to performance metrics.

3. Remote Work Policy

Starting in 2026, 60% of employees will work remotely at least 3 days per week, reducing office costs significantly.

4. Training Investment

The Company allocates $5,000 per employee per year for professional training and upskilling programs.

5. Revenue per Employee

The Company targets increasing revenue per employee by 18%, through automation and AI-driven productivity tools.

6. Hiring Strategy

Approximately 70% of new hires will be recent graduates, while the remaining 30% will be experienced professionals.

7. Workforce Cost Optimization

By optimizing workflows and introducing AI tools, the Company expects to reduce total workforce-related costs by 10% by 2030.
